

THE ART OF THE GAME

Spring 2018

Facilitators: George Nacouzi, Taejin Hwang

Time and Location: Wed 6:30–8:30, 891 Evans

Email: calaotg@gmail.com

Course Description:

This course is designed for anyone with an interest and love for strategy games. It is made for people with the ambition to build their game skills regardless of prior experience. Students who are new to the game have the opportunity to learn the basics and rules of the game. Students with prior experience have the opportunity to refine their skills. The course covers a variety of games, mainly focused on standard deck card games.

Course Expectations:

In the first 10 minutes of class, we will have a quiz testing whether or not you have done the assigned readings. The next 15-20 minutes will be a brief review of game rules and strategies. The remaining time up until the last 15 will be spent playing the actual games. The last 15 minutes will be spent analyzing individual play from the games.

Course Readings: Readings will be on the course webpage.
